<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Yes or No</th>
<th>Yes or No</th>
<th>Yes or No</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>School districts are required to train all employees in the requirements of the local policy.</td>
<td>If an employee witnesses or has reliable information about an incident of bullying, it must be reported within two days.</td>
<td>A procedure must be developed for prompt investigation of reports of violations and complaints.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Within one school day of a report, the principal or designee must initiate an investigation.</td>
<td>The investigation shall be completed within ten school days from the date of the report.</td>
<td>School counselors and school psychologists shall educate students who are victims of bullying on techniques for them to overcome bullying’s negative effects.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Yes or No

The district shall have jurisdiction to prohibit cyber-bullying that originates on a school’s campus or at a district activity if there is a sufficient nexus to the educational environment or if it constitutes a threat.

Cyber has created a new dimension to the issue – both for students, staff and parents

Digital Footprint

Cyber-baiting
“Casting for Victims”

Cyber-bullying
& Denigration

“S!#t”
“Bih”

Cyber-mobbing

Flaming
Cyber-Risks
Happy Slapping

Cyber-Risks
Outing

Cyber-Risks
Sextortion

Cyber-Risks
Trolling

Nothing is Anonymous
Digital Conscience

Bullying is Frequently Litigated
- Parents suing staff
- Students suing staff
- Parents suing parents
- Staff suing students
- Everyone suing the school

Explain the Investigatory Process

Advertise the reporting process
Regularly Communicate

Don’t Spread Rumors

Be Friendly to New Students

Tell parents & school officials

Observe Classrooms

Observe Recess

Observe Cafeterias

Observe Hallways