We’ve met and have discussed the conflict and agreed to the following to make things as right as possible:

__I. Recognize Injustice/Violation__

We listened to each other’s experience (both facts and feelings) and agree that injustices/violations have been recognized.

Other:

__II. Restore Equity__

Apology for injustices/violations.

Other (describe in detail):

__III. Future Intentions__

We agreed to prevent the problem from happening again by:

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

We talked about how important it is to complete this agreement and how this will help build trust.

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

Other (describe in detail):

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

__IV. Follow-Up Meeting__

We agree to meet again for a follow-up meeting. (date, time, location) __________________________________________

__________________________________________  __________________________________________

Student Signature                  Teacher Signature

Follow-up Results: __________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

©2008 Ron and Roxanne Claassen